

ELSIE ROBINSON'S TOP TEN QUOTES

On gender equality: "I'm tired of hearing the differences of men and women emphasized and exploited. It has built a wicked wall between the sexes and it's time we knocked it down."

On happiness: "Happiness must be planned for, fought for, achieved."

On writing: "It's the Parked Profile, not the Divine Spark, which is the secret of success."

On romantic relationships: "Love is not woman's whole existence unless she's a fool."

On motherhood: "Motherhood isn't martyrdom."

On friendship: "Nine-tenths of this Doing Good to Others is merely another name for meddling."

On nature: "I've found healing for almost everything in the beauty of the world."

On grief: "Love is worth anything it costs."

On living a full life: "I'm not afraid of dying but I'm very much afraid of not living enough."

On gendered expectations: "I was known as a Bad Girl."
