

ELSIE ROBINSON'S WRITING MANIFESTO

- No one is appointed a writer.
- The key to writing is writing.
- Forget the excuses. If you want to write, find a way to fit it into your life.
- You don't have to be a technically perfect writer. Give yourself the freedom to embrace an "outlaw technique."
- A writer's greatest achievement is helping readers recognize that no one suffers alone.
- Few things are more painful than baring your soul on the page. Few things are more healing.
